Of course it will be understood that, in the informal remarks I shall make, there is no allusion save to our own communities and to our own American Universities. I could not hope to adequately discuss these, and surely I should fail to appreciate the peculiarities of Universities abroad, determined, as they must be, by traditional influences, by governmental relations, or by local conditions hard for anyone to unstand who is not to the manor born. Indeed, it is already clear that in our...
