Read on your PC, Mac, smart phone, tablet or Kindle device Adolf Eichmann, also known as The Master was put in charge of organizing the Jews and sending them away to concentration camps and the like. On Sunday, March 19th 1944, Eichmann was standing in what would become one of many concentration camps; from there he led a long convoy of SS members into Hungary. As Eichmann and his men rolled along the trail, Hitler ordered troops of men to invade the capital city of Hungary and seize strategic positions. Eichmann was methodic in his annihilation of the Jews. First, he would isolate them. He would mark them with yellow stars so that they could not travel or use any form of communication as...
