WHENEVER I FEEL LIKE IT

Ledatape Organisation, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Includes interviews with: Johnny Strike (Crime) / Kim Salmon / Hugh Hefner / The Rock / Z-trip / DJ Necro / Pink Stainless Tail and articles on: AFL / Jandek / Joey Ramone / Techno / Victor Argo / Chopper / The Fall / Oz indie rock plus bonus snapshot segment featuring HUGE celebrities! Inspired by New York's legendary noise boys, 80s and 90s fanzines like Forced Exposure, B-side and Motorbooty and a lack of sex, Melbourne writer, musician, film-maker and suburban struggler, Aaron Goldberg presents in real print for the first time, a collection of non-fiction written works exploring his love for the not-quite popular pulp culture. Having no career plan, the worst networking skills on the planet (even in the Internet/blog age), and realising very quickly that his tastes were way too Kosher to get him aligned with any hipster scene, Goldberg knew he was never going to make a career (or even get laid) out of cultural writing. Having had some minor success as an artist in the early 90s in indie band the Earthmen, Goldberg's writing is a rare breed in this critic game, he understands what it's like actually being an artist with writing that aspires to capture the immediate ecstasy of the works themselves. Transplanting the by any means necessary with whenever I feel like it credo, Goldberg has compiled a collection of works that have appeared both online and off into this relaxed, inspired, organic (and often orgasmic) collection of interviews and essays. Sure anyone can write a blog, but hey, how many blogs can you read on the toilet/aeroplane/train?.
