We ought to do good work among the Warblers, and have a large amount of interesting notes on them, at our annual meeting. We have received the second edition of Our Birds, Their Nests and Eggs, by H.P. White of Farmington, Maine. It is revised and enlarged, but not exactly, brought up to date. It is also illustrated, but not particularly artistic, and reminds the editor very much of the first volume, which is somewhat misleading and amusing. Just before going to press, the news comes of the death of Dr. Elliott Coues, of Washington, D. C. He has long been recognized as one of our leading authorities on Birds. He will be missed by a large circle of scientists, and especially by those, who were so unfortunate as to displease the Dr. and receive a vigorous shower of sarcasm...
