J. Res, 52 April 23, 1996 The committee met, pursuant to notice, at 10:08 a.m., in room SD-226, Dirksen Senate Office Building, Hon. Orrin G. Hatch (chairman of the committee), presiding. Also present: Senators Grassley, Brown, Kyi, Leahy, and Feinstein. Opening Statement Of Hon. Orrin G. Hatch, A U.S. Senator From The State Of Utah The Chairman. We are happy to welcome all of you to the Judiciary Committee here today. Today, the committee is convened to take testimony on a proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States that would adopt into our fundamental law the following proposition: The interests of the victims of crime are entitled to the same respect as the interests of those charged with crime. That goal is as worthy of our consideration - indeed, it is as noble as any goal that the Congress could strive to...
