Hicks, Governor of Maryland: Delivered in the Senate Chamber, at Annapolis, Wednesday, January 13th, 1858 Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Delegates The will of the people of Maryland, whose voice you have to day declared, has elevated me to the highest office in their gift. For this great honor, freely bestowed, by a majority almost unprecedented in our State, I desire to express ray most grateful acknowledgments: and deeply sensible of the disproportion between my abilities, and the responsible duties they have devolved upon me, I must ask beforehand that they judge me with somewhat of the partiality they have already shown; and accept as the best acknowledgment I can make of their confidence, an entire devotion to their interest and the public service. In that service it shall be my highest ambition to reflect in my official conduct, the will of the people whose servant I am. And now, at my entrance into that office, with whose duties I am charged, it is due to myself,...
